

Tunbridge Wells, UK - Moody International's second Worldwide Management Conference was held this past January in Tunbridge Wells, UK. The purpose of this business conference was to discuss Moody's strategy and business plans with approximately 60 colleagues from around the world. The conference included training sessions and workshops on subjects such as Product Certification and Finance. Moody was very fortunate to have representatives from two clients attend the conference and presentations were gratefully received from Kevin Muller (BP) and Nabil Al Dabal (Aramco). Miklos Konkoly-Thege, who was recently appointed as a non-executive director for Moody International, was introduced to the global management team. Brian Dickie and Steve Puccinelli from Investcorp (owner), joined the meetings and expressed their gratitude for the great work Moody International is doing!
